DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

2. Claims 1-10, 12-13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention.

There is no disclosure in this application to any “directly...attached” structure. The parts 8 and 9 are attached via intervening adhesive or clip.

3. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

4. Claims 1-10, 12-13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

The claims are clearly in translated format and are replete with indefinite terminology such as the object for “which have painted areas” in claim 1 referring indefinitely to either the roof, vehicle or parts, alternative structure “directly or indirectly”, claim 1, considered incorrect in “directly”, “especially”, claims 1 and 12, conditional phrasing as in “can be”, claims which do not appear to limit claim 1 such as “parts” in claim 12 and “assortment of exterior parts” in claim

Art Unit: 3612

9 and claim 13 in total, redundant claims as claim 12, and terms lacking antecedent as “roof frame”, claim 12. The claims should be replaced if prosecution continues in view of the art cited below.

Drawings

5. The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the direct attachment, claim 1, and the different shapes, claim 10, must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). No new matter should be entered.

Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as “amended.” If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either “Replacement Sheet” or “New Sheet” pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

6. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

7. Claims 1-4, 7, 9-10, 12-13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Reinsch.

Reinsch has a convertible roof with multiple parts disclosed within the document in the patent to Bayer, col. 3, line 16, and separate exterior parts 13, at least one on each side of the roof, that is attached to the supporting structure 16. Claims to “painted areas” of a vehicle and “painted areas” of the separate parts are notoriously old in the art and obvious to use here both for aesthetic reasons as well as to protect the underlying structure.

Applicant may seasonally challenge, for the official record in this application, this and any other statement of judicial notice in timely manner in response to this office action. Please specify the exact statement to be challenged. Applicant is reminded, with respect to the specific challenge put forth, of the duty of disclosure under Rule 56 to disclose material which is pertinent to patentability including claim rejections challenged by applicant.

As to claims 2-3, the parts 13 are plastic.

As to claim 4, the parts 13 can be removed via overcoming the adhesive bond.

As to claim 9, two parts constitutes an assortment. Further, to change the design and color of the parts 13 is an obvious design choice, for aesthetic reasons, of the automotive designer and not a patentable distinction, claim 10.

As to claim 12, member 16 constitutes a roof frame in Reinsch.

Art Unit: 3612

8. Claims 5-6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Reinsch in view of Kano et al.

It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill to provide in Reinsch a clip connection of a side rail cover as taught by Kano et al. at 13/17 in order to ease repair.

9. Claim 8 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Reinsch in view of De Gaillard.

It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill to provide in Reinsch, with a folding roof, a transparent roof as taught by De Gaillard in order to increase interior illumination.

Conclusion

10. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Votypka and Staser et al. are cited to show further examples of roof side rail covers.
